*Please note, depending on demand for Email Blasts, we may restrict when an email is sent and frequency of emails so our community doesn't get overwhelmed with numerous emails. We may also recommend which type of ad option is desirable based on circumstances that impact the community at large. ISCJ reserves the right to not accept ads if it may conflict with ISCJ philosophy. Also this service is independent of any bulletin board ads in the ISCJ corridor. Please visit ISCJ office in person for more details on that process.

All checks should be made out to ISCJ and which service you want in the memo. It is the responsibility of the business owner to design the ad in a suitable format like JPEG for email blast or PDF for website posting.
