NEW ISCJ JUMMAH INFORMATION FOR DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME

Dear Brothers & Sisters: As-Salam-u-alaikum WRB

On Sunday, March 14, 2010 at 2 a.m., Daylight Saving Time begins in the United States. Based on a thorough review of the (Fiqh of the Four Mazahib) in relation to Jummah prayer time, ISCJ Religious Committee and ISCJ Imam have reached a conclusion to leave the scheduled times for the two Jummah prayers during the Day-Light-Saving period as they are currently, at 12:00 and 1:00pm.

Please include time for timely departure after the first prayer so that we can have room in the parking lot for the second prayer. This is a significant change, however one that is necessary. Let us all work together to make this change successful.

The implementation of this new arrangement shall be assessed going forward. Appropriate changes may be made to ensure maintaining convenient prayers and avoiding any damage to ISCJ image in the surrounding community.

Additionally, please inform your friends and family members of this new change in case they are not part of the ISCJ Azhan email distribution list or don't have access to the ISCJ website.

Lastly, it's our understanding the printed ISCJ Booklet for 2010 Prayer times might be incorrect. For correct timings visit www.iscj.org or www.islamicfinder.org

Thank you for your understanding and patience.

May Allah (SWT) guide us in serving for His cause.

Wailkum Salaam
