ISCJ YOUTH COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED

ISCJ Board of Trustees has recently appointed Br. Zaid Syed as ISCJ Youth Coordinator responsible for developing and implementing youth programs.

Meetings - Sundays 1:10pm

Br. Zaid is known to most of us as a leading young Muslim, graduate of NUI, Hafiz of the holy Quran, and currently studying at Columbia University.

Alhamdulillah we have started a Young Muslims (YM) Brothers group at ISCJ. YM is a national youth organization that nurtures Islam and brotherhood among young Muslims. Our group is intended for Muslim brothers who are 14-25 years old.

Our main activity is a weekly meeting that includes a halaqah (Islamic talk). After the halaqah, we have snacks, play sports, and talk.

In addition to the weekly meeting, we will have other fun activities like picnics, inshaAllah. We will also participate in volunteer activities from time to time, inshaAllah.

The ultimate purpose of this group is to please Allah, and all of our activities will be in accordance with the Qur'an and the Sunnah, inshaAllah.

We will meet at 1:10 PM Sundays at ISCJ inshaAllah.

This group is for brothers who are 14-25 years old.

Parents, and youth in this age range who have interest in getting involved in youth activities.

We will inshallah try to update our Website in the weeks and months ahead at: <http://iscjyouth.blogspot.com/>

The intention is to start an YM Sisters Group soon; there is an experienced YM Sister who will assist in establishing this group inshallah. As soon as things get finalized, communications will be sent out.
